WRITE UP

Selai Ralarala, has been working in the film/TV industry for over 8 years both behind the scenes and on camera. In that time she has filled various positions from Production Assistant to Line Producer and everything inbetween. Having worked at all levels of Production from conceptualization & commissioning to Production, Post Production and final delivery, Selai has been fortunate enough to work closely with various Commissioning Editors. Giving her an extra edge.

These very fact makes her an asset to any Production team. Selai has no formal education but through hard and dedication she's risen through the ranks & built a good reputation for herself.

Selai is team player and a hard worker. She will always go the extra mile
