Chris Green is a Journalism graduate, part-time Yogi, dad to the next Selena Gomez, and a lover of ideas, story, moving images and music. He's come from a background in promo and short form content, was a key member of the creative team that launched Vuzu, has won numerous BDA Promax statues, and produced a ton of work for brands like Tusker, Chivas, McDonald's and DSTV. He's also co-run a twice-E Emmy-nominated long form content production company, judged international work and claimed a SAFTA for Girl Eat World, an internationally-sold lifestyle television show. Chris has a love for quirk, comedy and the surreal – Spike Jonze's latest Apple ad is the most professionally jealous he has ever been. Or will admit to being.
