WRITE UP

Corné is friendly and easy to work with. Witty, with a sharp sense of humour, he tries to have a positive effect on his co-workers. As a filmmaker he understands that he is part of the audience and always tries to follow his instincts. Since starting his career, one of his biggest goals was to find his own voice and at the age of 30, he has put a lot of effort into that endeavour. A keen eye for detail and a love for entertainment, his biggest passion in life is storytelling.
