A roaming vagabond in search of sets in distress. A rookie sensation, champion thespian wrangler and natural elixir for the moody blues. A lock-off king with a cult like devotion to the call sheet. With no pride other than a job well done, Freddie can gladly carry sets up mountains and skip lunch to get the perfect shot. Loud as a trumpet of the apocalypse and quiet as a mute mouse in church. He has found tranquility locked inside the jaws of film. Having recently finished working on the international series Trackers as 3rd AD, Freddie is ready to climb the ranks.
